

EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT

Employee Engagement: What is it? Why is it important? How can you do it right? Less than one third of employees are actively engaged in their jobs!

Based on a recent HR Solutions' survey, only 27 percent of employees are 'Actively Engaged.' The remaining 73 percent is divided between 'Ambivalent' employees (60 percent) and 'Actively Disengaged' employees (13 percent).

What could this startling statistic mean to you?

- Lost and/or unsatisfied clients, customers or even team members.
- Decreased morale and productivity
- Little desire for creative solutions even in today's tough economy when the little things can mean the difference between being the vendor of choice or losing the business entirely.

The actively disengaged can suck the very life out of your organization. Kelli's Ready, Set, ENGAGE program & book show you:

- The 3 Critical Stages of ENGAGEMENT & How to OPTIMIZE them
- The Warning Signs of ENGAGEMENT Slipping away
- Whether or not you need an ENGAGEMENT Tune-up or a TOTAL ENGAGEMENT MAKEOVER
- Ready-to-use tools and techniques for how to Gain Employee Buy-in and Maintain ENGAGEMENT over the long term!
- How to TAP IN, TUNE IN & TURN ON Your Workforce NOW!
